WHY WE ARE THE EXPLORERS

La Salle University's nickname – the Explorers – was announced by the Collegian in March 1932 as the winning entry to a student contest. However, in the fall of 1931, a Baltimore sportswriter covering the La Salle/St. John's (MD) football game erroneously alluded to La Salle as being named for the French explorer La Salle, not St. John Baptist de La Salle. Were the two events related? We'll never know for sure.

Project TeamWork is consistently recognized for excellence by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports. Project TeamWork programs are listed below:

- MENTORING/ROLE MODELING

As mentors, La Salle student-athletes serve as peer advisors and as "Big Brothers or Big Sisters" to youth in the local community.

Head Coach

Tom Lochner

La Salle University

welcomed its seventh head coach in the program's history on August 30, 2004, when Tom Lochner was appointed to lead the team starting the 2004-05 season. This season, Lochner will be coaching in his 23rd season at the school overall, his sixth as head coach.

Lochner will look to return his squad to the success they enjoyed during the 2006-07 season, when the Explorers posted the most wins in a season (19) in more than a decade. Among some other accomplishments turned out that season include: becoming only the second La Salle squad in team history to start 7-0; winning nine games on the road for the first time since the 1991-92 season (10); matching the best-ever home mark at Tom Gola Arena (10-3); posting the best-ever winning streak at home in a single season (six straight); and registering a .500 mark in Atlantic 10 Conference play (7-7) for the first time in six seasons.

The Explorers were also in the hunt for the Big 5 title, winning their first two games of the year and a date on Feb. 12 at Temple would decide the outcome. La Salle dropped the game to the Owls, but finished the Big 5 campaign 2-2 — its best record since 1999-00 — and at the end of the season, Lochner was named Big 5 Coach of the Year.

All that success came on the heels of a successful 2006 portion of the 2005-06 season. La Salle went 7-1 in the month of January, the most wins in one month in more than a decade and started the conference 6-1, which vaulted them to the top of the A-10 standings for the first time in school history (Jan. 23). However, health and injury problems late hurt the team and they finished the season 11-17, 7-9 in the conference.

However, the 14 conference wins in those back-to-back seasons was the most this decade and matched the output during the 1999-00 and 2000-01 seasons, when the Explorers also won 14.

COACHING CAREER

- 1983-87 Head Coach
Bishop Gibbons High School (88-13)
- 1987-04 Assistant Coach
La Salle University (296-196)
- 2004- Head Coach
La Salle University (64-80)

In his first year as head coach, Lochner guided the Explorers to a 12-16 record (6-10 A-10), which included their first win over George Washington, an NCAA qualifier, in 24 years, and a 9-5 record at home.

The journey for Lochner at La Salle began when he joined the Explorers coaching staff in 1987 serving as a volunteer assistant for two seasons. After gaining full-time coaching status in 1989, he remained as an assistant coach until the 1998-99 season, when he was promoted to associate head coach.

He has been involved in all aspects of the Explorers program during his career at the school, which included serving as recruiting coordinator, and overseeing the skill development of both the guards and the post players. Lochner has been extensively involved in game coaching, scouting, daily practice and pregame preparations throughout his previous 22 years. He also worked with the academic support staff regarding student-athlete progress.

During his 17 years at La Salle University prior to his head coaching stint, Lochner had been part of 296 La Salle victories (296-196 overall). He had also been with the team for two NCAA Tournament appearances, one WNIT Tournament appearance, three conference titles, four Big 5 titles, and five 20-win seasons.

Lochner started his coaching career in his hometown of Schenectady, NY at his alma mater, Bishop Gibbons High School. He coached the girls basketball team from 1980-87, with his first three seasons guiding the junior varsity squad and the last four as the varsity head coach.

During his varsity tenure, Bishop Gibbons posted an 88-13 record and captured the 1986 New York State Championships (Large Division) with a 26-2 record. His team also won three sectional titles, and Lochner was honored as New York State Section II Coach of the Year twice — in 1985 and 1986.

In addition to coaching at the high school and college levels, Lochner has extensive summer camp experience, teaching basketball fundamentals to young athletes. He is also actively involved in alumni and booster fundraising activities.

Lochner holds two degrees from Temple University, a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education (1989) and an ED.M in Sports Management (1997). He also earned a Master's of Education from La Salle in 2006.

Lochner, wife Beth, son Curtis, and daughter Samantha, reside in Willow Grove.

Associate Head Coach Chrissie Doogan

Head Coach Tom Lochner welcomed back Chrissie (Donahue) Doogan to the La Salle University Women's Basketball coaching staff to start the 2004-05 season and in August 2005, she was promoted to Associate Head Coach. Doogan, a La Salle alumnae (1997), served as an assistant for the Explorers for five years before a two-year stint with Cornell University.

This will be Doogan's 15th season associated with La Salle Basketball, which includes four years as a player and her 11th as a coach, and this season is her 13th coaching season overall. For Lochner, Doogan is the recruiting coordinator and the primary handler for the skill development of the forwards.

Doogan is one of the top players ever to wear an Explorer jersey, ending her career as the school's second-leading scorer with 1,818 career points and third-leading rebounder with 914. Doogan led the team in scoring and rebounding her sophomore, junior and senior seasons. In 2003, Doogan was named to the La Salle Hall of Athletes.

She was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Player of the Year in 1995 and the Rookie of the Year in 1994. She was a First Team All-Big 5 member in her final three seasons at La Salle, and was named Second Team All-Big 5 as a freshman. Her outstanding career in the Big 5 earned her a spot in the Hall of Fame in 2002. Two years ago, Doogan was named one of the top 25 players in the history of the Big 5.

In her four-year career at La Salle, Doogan never missed a postseason all-conference team. As a freshman and sophomore, she was named to the MCC All-Conference teams in 1994 (third) and 1995 (second). In the fall of 1995, the Explorers joined the Atlantic 10 Conference, and in her final two seasons Doogan was named to the A-10 All-Conference teams in 1996 (second) and 1997 (first).

After leading her team to a pair of 20-win seasons, Doogan stayed with the La Salle program as an assistant coach following her graduation in 1997 and held that position for five seasons. Doogan was responsible for the development of the Explorers' post players, as well as all aspects of scouting and team fundraising.

Mimi Riley

Mimi Riley enters her seventh season on the sidelines at La Salle University as an assistant coach. Riley assists with recruiting and scouting as well as planning practices. She will spearhead all travel coordinating and community service projects as well as guard skill development. She has also taken on a more active role in the recruiting effort, as she will take the lead on all underclassmen recruiting.

Riley came to La Salle after a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Georgetown. Riley was familiar with the Georgetown program after playing for BIG EAST rival Villanova. Her coaching duties for the Hoyas included scouting, recruiting, individual player instruction, coaching the guards and travel arrangements.

Riley graduated from Villanova in May 2002 with a degree in communications. She helped lead Villanova to two straight NCAA Tournament appearances (2001, 2002), while playing for the Wildcats from 1997-2002.

She was the Wildcats starting point guard in both her junior and senior seasons and was a 2002 First Team Philadelphia All-Big 5 selection. Riley ended her final season averaging 12.3 points per game and a team-high 4.6 assists. She was named a 2002 BIG EAST Honorable Mention and was awarded the 2002 BIG EAST Sportsmanship Award.

During her four-year career Riley amassed 862 points, 416 assists and 356 rebounds in 117 games. Her 416 assists placed her sixth all-time in the Wildcat record books.

A Philadelphia-area product, Riley is from Bala Cynwyd and attended Archbishop Carroll High School.

Assistant Coach Stacey Smalls

Stacey Smalls enters her fifth season on the bench for the La Salle University Basketball Program. Her duties at La Salle include developing the guards and assisting with recruiting. She is also responsible for postgame film breakdown.

Smalls is a 2003 graduate of Temple University where she was a four-year member of the basketball team under former Owl Head Coach Dawn Staley. During her playing career at Temple, Smalls finished her four-year career as the sixth all-time leading scorer and is the only Owl to score more than 1,000 points and lead the team in assists in four straight seasons.

While at Temple, Smalls scored 1,258 points, while dishing out 360 assists and amassing 187 steals. In 2002, she led the Owls to their first Atlantic 10 Championship title and was named the tournament's MVP. Her other postseason accolades include A-10 Most Improved Player in 2001, A-10 Second Team and Defensive Team Member in 2001, 2002, and 2003, and First Team Philadelphia Big 5 in 2002 and 2003.

Outside of her playing for the Owls, Smalls worked basketball camps at both Temple University and at Norristown High School. She also interned at both the Dawn Staley Foundation and Staley 5, where she helped organize basketball clinics and aided in the development of a girls summer league.

Smalls has professional basketball experience, having played for the Birmingham Power of the National Women's Basketball League. During her tenure with the Power, she led the team in minutes played and assists as the starting point guard.

Since the beginning of her collegiate career at Temple, Smalls has been very active in the community and worked closely with children at basketball camps and most recently as a case manager for the Philadelphia Youth Services Agency.

Smalls resides in Cheltenham and attended Cheltenham High School.

In August 2007, the La Salle University Women's Basketball team announced the appointment of John Donahue to the position of Director of Women's Basketball Operations. Donahue enters his third season on the Explorers' sidelines.

Donahue comes to La Salle from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, where he graduated in 2006 with a degree in chemical engineering, and played for two seasons on the RPI Men's Basketball team.

Prior to his appointment, Donahue also coached the Devon Prep JV basketball and baseball teams during the 2006-07 seasons.

His primary role as Director of Women's Basketball Operations will be to oversee administrative duties, including marketing and promotions. He will also be involved in coordinating facility use, game-day operations, compliance, and community service. Donahue will also take over the program's film exchanging.

Donahue is also currently pursuing his Master's in Business Administration at La Salle.

Team Manager Sister Eileen McGowan

Sister Eileen McGowan, a Sister of Mercy, served as a campus minister for five years at La Salle University and is now teaching in the Religion Department. She has been involved with the women's basketball program since she came to La Salle in 2000.

Before coming to La Salle, McGowan worked as a Campus Minister at Catholic University in Washington, DC for seven years (1993-00). While at Catholic, she continued her education in Theology.

Before her post-graduate work at Catholic, she taught Theology at Chestnut Hill College from 1991-93 and was the Director of Religious Education in North Philadelphia from 1982-1991 for St. Stephen's and St. Henry's Parishes. McGowan also taught at several different parochial grade schools after earning her degree.

A 1976 graduate of Gwynedd Mercy, McGowan earned a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Education and went on to earn two masters degrees. She has an MA in Religious Studies from Villanova University (1987) and an MA in Bilingual Bicultural Education from Marywood College (1985).

Over the years along with being involved with the women's basketball program at La Salle, Sister Eileen was the moderator of the Gamma Sigma service sorority. While a campus minister, she also served on many university committees, including the Health Advisory Committee, the Student Affairs Staff Development Committee, and the Middle States Committee on Integrity.

McGowan's love of the game started with her playing days and her coaching of an elementary school at St. Michael's in Levittown in the 1970's. She was also probably the first and only religious sister to be an official PIAA referee, and she officiated games in the early 1980's in both Pennsylvania and in Florida.

Assistant Athletic Trainer Kerrie Eisenhauer

Kerrie Eisenhauer enters her eighth season as Assistant Athletic Trainer at La Salle University. She works primarily with the Explorers student-athletes from men's soccer and women's basketball.

Eisenhauer brings a wealth of experience with her to La Salle. Most recently, she was at Mississippi State University in Starkville, where she received a Master of Science degree in physical education, with a concentration in sport administration.

During her two-year stint with the Bulldogs, Eisenhauer worked as graduate assistant trainer, evaluating MSU's student-athletes and establishing treatment and rehabilitation protocols for the school's women's soccer and softball teams, as well as on the recreational level.

In May 2000, Eisenhauer received her Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology with a concentration in athletic training, from James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA. She worked as a student athletic trainer with the Dukes' women's soccer, women's basketball, cross country, track, cheerleading and 1999 Atlantic 10 Champion football squads.

Eisenhauer received a CSCS (Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist) certificate from the National Strength & Conditioning Association in addition to her PES (Performance Enhancement Specialist) certificate from the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

ATLANTIC 10 CONFERENCE

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 14-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country.

That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 – the University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University, Temple University, and Xavier University.

The 14 member institutions of the A-10 are united and strengthened by their diversity. Each is extraordinary in its educational mission, whether of a Catholic faith, a private university or a land grant institution. The varied pursuits of each member prove that there are many threads that weave the fabric for a great conference.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions, in conjunction with Atlantic 10 Commissioner Bernadette V. McGlade, have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation a successful one. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. The Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better, recognized 1,162 student-athletes in the Fall 2008 while 1,164 were named to the Spring 2009 Honor Roll.

The Atlantic 10 Conference will crown champions in 21 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

A Philly Tradition

On November 23, 1954 the administration at the five major universities in the Philadelphia area agreed to formulate a partnership between their athletic departments. They agreed to participate in a men's basketball round robin, the "City Series", at the Palestra on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. The Big 5 was born. For 55 years, this partnership has remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court. The Philadelphia Big 5 even beat out Rocky Balboa to be named the City's "Best Sports Tradition" in the Philadelphia Daily News!

No other city in the United States is represented by five major Division I Universities.

GAME 1

Walsh Leads La Salle To Season-Opening Victory

La Salle 67, Villanova 62 (OT)

The Pavilion
November 14, 2008

Villanova, PA—Jamie Walsh scored a game-high 19 points and dished out a career-high seven assists to help lead La Salle to a 67-62 overtime victory at Villanova. Her two made free throws with 28 seconds left in the extra session sealed the win for the Explorers.

This was La Salle's second straight victory at Villanova—winning two years ago 74-62—but the Explorers are just 4-12 all-time at Villanova and 9-29 against the Wildcats overall.

Trailing for only 24 seconds in the game, the Explorers built their largest advantage of the game to 12 points early in the second half, but the Wildcats slowly chipped away at their deficit, getting it to three on a Laura Kurz jumper with 5:31 left in regulation. She finished the game with a double-double—14 points, 11 rebounds.

La Salle looked to stave off the run when Walsh hit a three and Margaret Elderton scored on a lay-up to push its lead back to eight, 55-47, with just over four minutes left.

Villanova (0-1, 0-1 Big 5) closed out the half on a 13-5 run, scoring on six of its last seven possessions including a perfect 4-for-4 from the foul line. Maria Getty's two free throws—two of her team-high 10 points—with 27 seconds left pulled the Wildcats even at 60-60 and La Salle could not break the tie before the extra session.

In overtime, the Explorers took a three-point lead thanks to a made free throw by Ashley Gale and a pair by Elderton with 3:25 left.

Lisa Karcic converted her own foul shots with 1:16 remaining to pull Villanova within one, but Elderton scored on a driving lay-up on the Explorers next possession to make it a three-point game again.

La Salle (1-0, 1-0 Big 5), which held the Wildcats to 0-for-8 from the field in the overtime period, forced a Getty three-point miss and Elderton got the rebound and Walsh was fouled with 28 seconds left.

Walsh led four Explorers in double figures, as Elderton and Gale each had 14 and Tara Lapetina chipped in 10 points off the bench. Danielle Mickiewicz in her first collegiate start scored four points and pulled down a team-high 10 rebounds.

Robertson's Double-Double Paces Explorers in Win

La Salle 71, Long Island 57

Tom Gola Arena
November 16, 2008

Philadelphia, PA—Morgan Robertson registered her second career double-double with career-highs in points (14) and rebounds (11) to help lead La Salle to a 71-57 victory Sunday afternoon in non-conference action.

Margaret Elderton scored a team-high 16 points, while Jamie Walsh and Ashley Gale each added 11 points. All three players knocked down three three-point baskets as the Explorers, as a team, hit 10—one shy of the La Salle game record.

The game did not start off well for the host team, though, as the Blackbirds built a 10-point advantage six minutes into the game, and after a Chelsi Johnson three pointer, Long Island led 15-5.

La Salle (2-0) scored six straight points—four by Nadia Duncan—to spark a two-minute rally, but the lead was back to eight after Ashley Palmer scored on back-to-back jumpers to push the score to 19-11.

After being held scoreless in the opener at Villanova Friday and grabbing just one rebound, Robertson bookended an Explorer 20-4 run with a pair of lay-ups and scored six points and pulled down four rebounds in the five-minute, 30-second run, which turned an eight-point deficit into an eight-point lead, 31-23.

Long Island (0-1) responded by getting the game to within four at the half (36-32). Out of the locker room, Palmer hit a pair of threes and scored eight points in a four-minute span to give the Blackbirds a four-point lead, 44-40, with 15:38 left in the game. Palmer, in her first collegiate game, led Long Island with 30 points and 16 boards.

The Explorers then held the Blackbirds scoreless for over four minutes and went on an 11-0 run to take command of the game. Walsh hit a pair of threes, while Jenna Gilbert started the run with a lay-up, Danielle Mickiewicz added another, and the run was capped on Tara Lapetina's three with 11:29 to go, putting La Salle up 53-44.

The two teams traded points for the next five minutes before Elderton knocked down the Explorers 10th three-point basket of the afternoon to increase La Salle's advantage into double figures and Long Island would never get it below 10 the rest of the way.

La Salle Drops Decision at Miami (OH)

Miami (OH) 63, La Salle 50

Millett Hall
November 25, 2008

Oxford, OH—Antonia Gale tied her career high with 12 points and Morgan Robertson again grabbed double figures in rebounds for La Salle, but it was not enough as the host Miami (OH) RedHawks defeated the Explorers, 63-50, at Millett Hall Tuesday night.

The RedHawks used an 11-0 run that spanned the halves to take a 34-23 lead just a minute into the second and never relinquished it.

The Explorers fought back—cutting the deficit to as little as three at 38-35 after Danielle Mickiewicz hit a baseline jumper, but the RedHawks responded with an 8-0 over the next three minutes to push their lead back to 11.

Miami (OH) (2-1) outscored La Salle 40-18 in points in the paint and forced the Explorers into 20 turnovers, which they scored 28 points off of opposed to the Explorers three.

La Salle (3-2) did grab 20 offensive rebounds, which it turned into 18 second-chance points. The 20 rebounds were the most for the Explorers since pulling down 21 on January 24, 2006 in a 67-49 victory over Penn.

The first half saw the score tied five times with two lead changes. After allowing the first basket, the Explorers used a 10-2 run to take their largest lead of the game at 10-4, seven minutes into the contest.

The RedHawks used their own 10-2 run to take a two-point advantage at 14-12 with nine minutes left before the intermission.

However, over the next eight minutes, every time Miami (OH) would build a small advantage, La Salle would reel them back in, the last time at 23-23 on two Tara Lepetina free throws with 1:08 left before the break.

Miami (OH) would score the last five points of the half to take a lead into the locker rooms, then scored six straight points out of the break to take control of the game.

Robertson Leads La Salle to Victory over Radford

La Salle 65, Radford 52

McKeon Pavilion
November 29, 2008

Moraga, CA— Morgan Robertson notched her fourth double-double of the season and led three Explorers with at least 16 points as La Salle defeated Radford, 65-52, in the consolation game of the Hilton Concord Thanksgiving Classic on Saturday evening.

For La Salle (4-3), Robertson scored a game-high 18 points and pulled down a career-high 19 rebounds - three shy of the La Salle single-game record - on her way to being named to All-Tournament team. Ashley Gale and Jamie Walsh were also in double figures for the second straight game, each adding 16 points.

Early in the game, the teams traded baskets and the lead before the Explorers went on a 7-0 run capped by Tara Lapetina's three pointer, which gave La Salle a 14-9 advantage.

Radford (0-5) kept the game close, answering each La Salle basket with one of its own but four quick points by the Explorers - a Gale lay-up and a Nadia Duncan short jumper - gave them their biggest lead of the first at six, 27-21, with under four minutes left in the half.

The Highlanders responded with their own 7-0 run over the next two minutes and when Charron Leeper scored on a lay-up, they took a 28-27 lead with 1:29 left before the break.

After trading a made free throw on each end of the court, Jenna Gilbert knocked down a 16-footer to give La Salle a 30-29 lead heading into the locker rooms. The Explorers slowly built their lead in the second half and after Lapetina knocked down her second three of the night, they led 43-36 with 12:46 left in the game.

However, Radford had one more run in them. They held La Salle scoreless for three minutes and tied the game on a Leeper jumper with 9:34 remaining. After the teams again traded baskets, the Explorers used an 11-0 run to take command of the contest.

Robertson scored inside, Walsh knocked down her third three of the game, Gale added a jumper, and Robertson scored back-to-back baskets to give La Salle an 11 edge with 4:08 to go and the Highlanders would not get any closer than eight the rest of the way.

Late La Salle Rally Comes up Just Short

Morgan State 71, La Salle 70

Talmadge Hill Field House
December 3, 2008

Baltimore, MD— La Salle set a record for most three-point shots made in a game and, despite being down by 13 with less than two minutes to go, had a chance to pull out the victory. However, the team's shot just before the buzzer was unsuccessful and Morgan State held on for the win.

Morgan Robertson again registered a double-double with 16 points and 13 rebounds, while Margaret Elderton matched her 16 points and added five assists and three steals. Ashley Gale (14) and Jamie Walsh (12) were in double figures in scoring for the third straight game.

The Explorers used a pair of 9-0 runs through the game's first eight minutes to take its largest lead of the game at 10. The last was capped by an Elderton three with 12:20 left in the first to put them up 18-8.

Morgan State (6-1) slowly cut into the deficit and used a 10-1 run over a 2:12 span ended by Mahala Thomas' three to take a 1-1 lead.

La Salle (4-4) scored the last seven points of the half to head into the locker rooms with a 40-37 advantage which included Elderton hitting a running back-shot just before the buzzer.

The Bears opened the second with a 15-3 burst, which included an 11-0 run over a three-minute stretch to take a nine-point lead at 52-43.

It was now the Explorers turn to play catch-up, and they were able to cut their deficit to four - 56-52 - after Walsh connected on a three with just over 12 minutes left in regulation.

The make was La Salle's 12th three pointer of the night, which broke the school's single game record of 11 makes done five times.

However, the Bears used a 13-4 run from that point until the four-minute mark to take its largest lead of the game at 13 and with 2:04 remaining, they were still up 13 at 71-58.

But Walsh began an Explorer run of 12 straight points with a three pointer that had them to within one, 71-70, with seven seconds left.

They got the Bears into a 1-and-1 situation, and Stacy Hunt stepped to the line with four seconds left. She missed her first attempt and Elderton snagged the rebound and dribbled up court. But unlike in the first half, when she was able to get a basket before the buzzer.

Tom Gola Arena
December 6, 2008

Philadelphia, PA—Morgan Robertson's lay-up with 1:39 to play in regulation cut the Explorers deficit to two, 49-47, but Binghamton sealed its victory over La Salle with a basket and two free throws down the stretch giving the Bearcats a 53-47 win Saturday afternoon.

Robertson, who ranked 37th in the nation in rebounds per game in the latest NCAA statistics release, tallied game highs of 12 points and seven rebounds. Her jumper at the 8:04 mark of the first half gave the Explorers their largest lead of the game at five, 16-11.

Binghamton (4-4) chipped away at the deficit and used a 10-0 run spanning more than three minutes to take its first lead of the game. Erica Carter ignited the run with a three pointer at the 7:50 mark and when Orla O'Reilly connected on a three pointer of her own, it gave the Bearcats their first lead, 19-16.

Carter tied a team-high with 10 points, on 3-of-6 shooting, and pulled down five boards.

The Explorers managed seven more points before the break, but Darryll Peterson's two converted free throws gave Binghamton a five-point advantage, 28-23, at the half.

At the midway point, Ashley Gale paced all Explorers with eight points, on 2-of-3 shooting.

Tara Lapetina hit a shot from beyond the arc with 12:36 remaining in the game to edge La Salle closer, 33-31. A little over four minutes later, Margaret Elderton also hit a three, but the Explorers still trailed 37-34.

From there, Binghamton would use an 8-0 run, capped off by two free throws from Laura Franceski, to give them a 45-36 lead. Franceski tied Carter for the team-high with 10 points, while also contributing team-highs of six rebounds and three blocks.

Elderton finished with eight points, on 2-of-7 shooting, and Lapetina finished with six points and a team-high four assists.

Free Throws Down the Stretch Pull Out a Victory

La Salle 61, Lafayette 57

Tom Gola Arena
December 16, 2008

Philadelphia, PA—Morgan Robertson hit a pair of free throws with 33 seconds left to break a 57-all tie and Margaret Elderton sealed the win with two more with seven ticks left to give the Explorers a 61-57 win over Lafayette.

Those four straight points capped a 9-1 run for La Salle over the game's final two minutes – a game that saw the Explorers lead by more than 16 points with less than 15 minutes left in the second half.

Close through 10 minutes, La Salle took a seven-point lead when Robertson scored seven straight Explorer points to make it 20-13 with 6:47 left before intermission. However, Lafayette pulled even at 22-all with a 9-2 run capped by a Jessica Spicer jumper with 1:53 left.

La Salle (5-5) scored the final four points before the break and continued their run out of the locker rooms, scoring 12 straight to open a 38-22 advantage. Their run to start the second was keyed by back-to-back threes by Jenna Gilbert and Jamie Walsh and then they converted two straight and-ones – Robertson and Elderton – and with 18:04 left in the game, they led by 16. The lead was still 16 after Nadia Duncan scored on a driving lay-up,

Lafayette (4-6) slowly cut into the deficit, starting with a 5-0 run, followed by a 6-0 run capped by back-to-back baskets by Elizabeth Virgin and with 10:01 left, they trailed 46-39.

Elderton stopped that run, but eight straight Lafayette points in the next two minutes pulled them to within one. Elderton drained a three to push the Explorer lead back to four (51-47) at the 6:15 mark.

Lafayette made one more run and when Cristin Zavocki hit a three – at the 4:28 mark – it gave the Leopards their first lead of the game at 52-51 – and when Spicer scored on a lay-up with 2:16, they had their largest lead at four – 56-52.

Ashley Gale responded with a three 16 seconds later, and Gilbert hit a shot to give La Salle the lead back, 57-56. Smith converted just one of her two foul shots to pull Lafayette back even with 57 seconds left.

Robertson would convert her two free throws and after a Lafayette turnover Elderton sank hers for the final points of the game.

Four Explorers in Double Figures in La Salle Win

La Salle 75, Loyola (MD) 63

Reitz Arena

December 19, 2008

Baltimore, MD — La Salle had four players reach double figures, led by Morgan Robertson's sixth double-double of the season to register a 75-63 victory at Loyola (MD), marking the third time this season La Salle has had four players in double figures — they are 3-0.

Robertson started out hot for La Salle, scoring the first two baskets — the second tying the score at four-all, but five quick points by the Greyhounds put them up 9-4 just three minutes into the game.

La Salle reeled them back in, starting with a Margaret Elderton jumper, followed by a Robertson lay-up, a Jamie Walsh steal and fast-break lay-up, and when Ashley Gale connected on her first three of the night at the 14:45 mark, it was tied at 13.

Loyola (MD) (6-4) used a 9-2 run over the next five minutes to build its largest lead of the game at seven and when Siobhan Prior hit a three it gave them a 22-15 lead with 9:57 left until the break.

The Explorers responded with an Antonia Gale three and slowly chipped into the deficit. Robertson scored eight straight Explorer points to pull them to within 28-26, but a Loyola (MD) burst — a 6-1 run — put them back up seven.

Out of the half, Loyola (MD) led 34-32, and the teams came out in the second half on a scoring frenzy. The Greyhounds scored on five of its first eight possessions, however, the Explorers — who failed on their first two trips — scored on their next eight trips. On the last, Jenna Gilbert knocked down a three, which put the Explorers up four.

At the 12:17 mark, Walsh hit a jumper to put La Salle up six at 51-45, but Loyola (MD) used a 7-1 run to knot the game and with 8:10, after a Candice Walker three, the score was tied for the eighth time at 57.

La Salle (6-5) responded with four straight points, answered by another Walker three, but at the 5:41 mark Walsh knocked down her 100th career three in the Blue and Gold. That basket sparked a 10-0 run that put them up 11 with 3:55 left after an Ashley Gale steal and lay-up. The Explorers held the Greyhounds to just three points over the game's final six minutes to close out the victory.

Elderton Nets 19 in Victory over Rider

La Salle 63, Rider 47

Tom Gola Arena
December 21, 2008

Philadelphia, PA — La Salle won its third straight game behind a season-high 19 points from Margaret Elderton, while Morgan Robertson chipped in 15 points, seven boards in the 63-47 victory over Rider.

Elderton scored 14 of her game-high in the first half, including three shots from beyond the arc, and added three assists. Robertson also collected a career-high tying four steals to add to her totals.

Rider (2-7) controlled the game early, taking a four-point lead six minutes into the game. However Robertson scored back-to-back baskets and Antonia Gale hit a free throw to put La Salle up 9-8.

The Broncs responded with an 8-1 run to take their largest lead of the afternoon at 16-11 with 7:37 left in the first half. They hit six of their first nine shots and to that point, were 8-of-15 from the floor.

A 10-0 run highlighted by back-to-back three-pointers from Elderton, turned the five-point deficit into a five-point advantage with 2:46 left before intermission.

Rider's Amanda Sepulveda turned a steal into a fast-break lay-up 50 seconds later to make it a three-point game, but again Elderton hit back-to-back buckets to put La Salle up 25-18.

The Explorers held Rider to just one basket on 1-of-7 shooting from the floor and forced them into five turnovers to take command of the contest, and the Broncs would get no closer than seven in the second.

Out of the locker room, La Salle used a 7-2 run to open a 12-point lead with Jenna Gilbert scoring five in the run — including an offensive put back. She scored seven in the game - all in the second half - and grabbed a game-high eight rebounds.

The Broncs kept the game within range and had their deficit down to seven - 45-38 - after Tammy Meyers turned another steal into a fast break lay-up and it was eight with 6:54 left in regulation.

The Broncs kept the game within range and had their deficit down to seven - 45-38 - after Tammy Meyers turned another steal into a fast break lay-up and it was eight with 6:54 left in regulation.

The Explorers then put the game away with an 11-2 run ignited by an Ashley Gale three-pointer. Chelsea Conner capped off the run with a baseline jumper with 1:03 left in the game, putting La Salle up 59-42.

The Explorers (7-5) are now 7-0 all-time versus the Broncs.

La Salle Rallies in Second Half for Victory

La Salle 67, Valparaiso 62

Stabler Arena
December 29, 2008

Bethlehem, PA — La Salle rebounded from a nine-point halftime deficit to register a 67-62 victory over Valparaiso in the first game of the Christmas City Classic at Stabler Arena to extend its winning streak to four.

They had four players reach double figures led by Margaret Elderton's 18 points, followed by Morgan Robertson with 15, Ashley Gale with 14, and Jamie Walsh with 13.

Down 29-20, the Explorers slowly chipped away using three-point plays. First, Robertson knocked down her first of the season - then after the Crusaders pushed their lead back to nine, Gale hit a three and used a three-point play - with a steal, a fast-break layup, and a free throw - to cut the deficit to three.

Valparaiso (4-5) scored five quick points to make it an eight-point game, but again, back came the Explorers with a 12-2 run. Back-to-back threes by Walsh and Tara Lapetina made it a two-point game.

After Lauren Kenney scored on a layup, six straight free throws gave La Salle its first lead since early in the first at 41-39 with 12:17 left.

The teams traded the lead for the next four minutes, before La Salle went on a 9-2 run pushing its lead to five - 55-50 - after a Robertson bucket with 3:41 left.

Down the stretch, the Explorers answered Crusader baskets with their own, as Walsh and Gale each connected on threes, but with 29 seconds left, they still only led by three - 63-60 - after Kenney's 22nd point of the night.

La Salle (8-5) knocked down four straight free throws in the final 19 seconds to secure the win. They went 14-of-15 from the line in the second half and hit 18-of-20 from the line in the game.

The Explorers opened up the game by taking their largest lead of the contest at 10-2. However, the Crusaders answered with a 23-2 run to take a 13-point lead with 3:49 left before the break.

With the win, La Salle wins its fourth straight for the first time since it opened the 2006-07 season with seven victories out of the gate. They are also now 4-0 when four players hit double figures.

Explorers Lose in Championship Game of Classic

Lehigh 63, La Salle 47

Stabler Arena
December 30, 2008

Bethlehem, PA — A day after erasing a nine-point lead at the break to pull out a win, La Salle could not maintain its own 11-point halftime advantage and dropped a 53-49 decision to Lehigh in the Championship game of the Christmas City Classic at Stabler Arena.

As they did in Monday's game, the Explorers came out scoring, with Morgan Robertson tallying La Salle's first eight points in the first five minutes of the game. Margaret Elderton hit a driving layup, Tara Lapetina knocked down a three, and after Ashley Gale converted an and-one, La Salle led by 10 (16-6) nine minutes into the contest.

The Mountain Hawks recovered - scoring six unanswered in a two-minute stretch, all on fast-break lay-ups - with Eric Prosser finishing on two of them to pull Lehigh within four.

Elderton would hit a jumper to stop the run, and then Gale took over the La Salle offense. She scored eight straight Explorer points to push the lead back to 10 by converting 5-of-6 from the foul line, and hitting a three with 48 seconds left in the half to put the Explorers up 26-16.

Lehigh's Emily Gratch scored on a layup with 33 ticks left, but as the Explorers have been doing much of this season - scoring the last points of the half - Jamie Walsh knocked down a three with five seconds left to put La Salle up 11 (29-18) heading into the locker room.

Lehigh (10-3) would use a 12-3 run to open the second as Courtney Dentler scored eight of the team's points and her three with 12:39 left in the game pulled the Mountain Hawks to within two at 32-30.

However, it seemed La Salle weathered the run and would take back control by scoring seven straight and when Elderton hit another jumper, the Explorers led 41-32 with less than eight minutes left.

But the Mountain Hawks used a 13-0 run over a five-minute span to take its first lead of the game and with 3:57 left, Lehigh was up 45-41.

La Salle (8-6) would get to within one with a Gale basket and free throw with three minutes left and with 19 seconds, her three-pointer pulled them to within two, but Prosser knocked down two free throws to provide the winning margin.

Explorers Fall to Richmond in Wednesday Matinee

Richmond 67, La Salle 48

Tom Gola Arena
January 14, 2009

Philadelphia, PA—In its Atlantic 10 Conference home opener and on Elementary School Day, La Salle looked to even its A-10 record, but an early 10-0 second-half run by Richmond put the Spiders ahead for good, and the Explorers fell at Tom Gola Arena, 67-48, Wednesday afternoon.

Margaret Elderton scored a team-best 14 points and put the Explorers on the scoreboard first after running the open floor and scoring the first bucket of the game.

At the 17:05 mark, Brittani Shells put the Spiders on the board with a three-pointer which ignited a 10-2 run capped off by Nikita Thomas' layup to give her team a 10-4 lead.

Trailing by as many as seven, the Explorers rattled off 11 straight points to give them a four-point lead with 5:37 remaining before the break at 22-18. The first nine points of that run came off of three consecutive three pointers courtesy of Morgan Robertson, Ashley Gale and Jamie Walsh.

With the game knotted at 26, Thomas hit a jumper with two seconds remaining in the first half to give Richmond the go-ahead basket at the midway point, 28-26. La Salle is 8-2 when scoring the last points before intermission, and is now 1-6 when their opposition does.

It was a one possession game with 15:42 remaining in regulation, 34-31, when a Shells jumper sparked that 10-0 run, which put the Spiders ahead for good.

Richmond (14-3, 2-0 A-10) extended its lead to as many as 21 with 6:21 to go, but the Explorers answered back, reeling off seven straight points to close their deficit to within 57-43. But, the Spiders pushed their lead back to 20 to secure their fourth straight win over La Salle.

After forcing 20 La Salle turnovers, resulted in a 29-13 advantage in points off turnovers, Richmond has now recorded three straight games with at least 20 forced turnovers dating back to their 45-33 win over No. 25 Wake Forest.

La Salle (9-8, 0-2 A-10) saw Nadia Duncan lead them off the bench as she poured in seven points.

Explorers-Billikens Play Overtime Thriller

Saint Louis 77, La Salle 73 (OT)

Tom Gola Arena
January 17, 2009

Philadelphia, PA—Jamie Walsh's three pointer with one second left capped a remarkable comeback for La Salle and forced overtime. However, Saint Louis, behind a Tom Gola Arena school single-game record of 37 points from Theresa Lisch, pulled out the win, 77-73, Saturday afternoon.

Down 13 at the break and 16 (54-38) with 9:42 left, the Explorers mounted a comeback that appeared would come up short. Nadia Duncan started a 13-0 run for La Salle over a three-minute span.

She hit a pair of free throws, which was followed by a Jenna Gilbert layup. Then a trio of three pointers by Walsh, Margaret Elderton, and Ashley Gale pulled La Salle to within three at 54-51 with 6:18 left.

However, it looked as if the Billikens weathered the storm as Lisch scored six straight points - with a four-point play and 17-foot jumper - to push her team's lead back to nine with 4:55 left in regulation.

La Salle (9-9, 0-3 A-10) had another run, which was again started by Duncan, who scored on a driving layup to ignite an 11-0 run. A free throw by Duncan made it a six-point deficit and Walsh cut that in half with a three with 3:07 remaining. A Walsh three capped the run at the 2:23 mark of the second to give La Salle a 62-60 lead.

Saint Louis (8-10, 2-1 A-10) answered back with a Lisch three to put her team up one with 2:04 left and four made Billiken foul shots later, leading 67-62 with just 22 ticks left, the game looked all but over.

But La Salle had one more run left. Elderton scored on a layup eight seconds later to make it a three-point game. Then Amanda Kemezys was fouled and went to the line for one-and-one with 12 seconds left. She missed the first, Morgan Robertson pulled down the board, and Walsh hit her sixth three of the game, tying the game at 67.

In overtime, Duncan scored on a layup, which was followed by two Kemezys' free throws. Duncan put La Salle up two with 3:12 left, but Lisch hit her sixth three of the game to give Saint Louis a 72-71 lead.

Robertson answered on the other end with Heather King tied the game at 73 with a foul shot. Lisch, who scored 18 of the Billikens last 23 points hit a jumper with 15 seconds left and made two free throws after La Salle could not convert on its final possession.

La Salle Loses Big 5 Game at Temple

Temple 62, La Salle 55

Liacouras Center
January 21, 2009

Philadelphia, PA—La Salle had a chance to secure at least a share of the Big 5 title and end Temple's reign as Big 5 Champs, but the Owls defeated the Explorers, 62-55, to claim their fifth straight title, Wednesday night.

The Explorers held a three-point lead early after Jamie Walsh knocked down her second three of the night and five minutes in they led 10-7, as Walsh scored eight of her team-high 13 in the span.

Still leading by three after Margaret Elderton hit a 15-foot jumper (14-11), the Owls rattled off the next 14 points to take control of the game. Five different Owls scored in the run, which was capped by a LaKeisha Eaddy driving layup with 6:23 left; Temple led 25-14.

Antonia Gale ended the run with a free throw, but Kristie Watkins-Day followed with a short jumper to give Temple its largest lead of the game at 12 with 5:29 left in the half.

La Salle (9-10, 0-4 A-10, 2-1 Big 5) then held the Owls scoreless for the next five minutes, and scored on back-to-back possessions to cut the deficit to eight (27-19). However, the Explorers also went without a point until the last second, when Nadia Duncan scored on a layup in response to the Owls bucket with 16 ticks left.

Out of the locker rooms down 29-21, La Salle scored the first four points to get within four, and after Ashley Gale converted a pair of free throws with 15:25 left in the game, the Explorers trailed 33-31.

Temple (11-6, 3-1 A-10, 3-1 Big 5) answered with a 6-o run - and again three different Owls scored baskets - with Shenita Landry putting her team up 39-31 with 12:51 remaining.

The Explorers again chipped away at their deficit, with some help from the three-point basket. Down 41-33, La Salle used an 11-5 run, which included threes from Ashley Gale, Tara Lapetina, and Antonia Gale to again get the contest to a one-possession game.

However, 13 seconds after Gale made it 46-44, Shaqwedia Wallace drained a three to start an 8-o Temple run and La Salle would get no closer the rest of the way. The Owls were aided by 16 offensive rebounds, which they turned into 16 second-chance points.

Robertson Lifts La Salle to Win With Free Throws

La Salle 42, Fordham 41

Rose Hill Gym
January 24, 2009

Bronx, NY—Morgan Robertson converted two foul shots for La Salle with nine seconds left and Randall Hurst's offensive put-back was too late and the Explorers escaped Fordham with a 42-41 victory.

Robertson finished with 10 points and a game-high 12 rebounds, her ninth double-double of the season and the most by an Explorers this decade, while Jamie Walsh scored a game-high 16 points with three boards and three steals.

Despite leading by 11 at the 12:28 mark of the second half (28-17) after a Danielle Mickiewicz layup, the Explorers found themselves down two with 4:04 remaining in the game.

Walsh knocked down her fourth three-point basket of the afternoon to put her team back up one, but Fordham's Annie Zopf answered with her third three to give the Rams a 40-38 advantage.

La Salle (30-10, 1-4 A-10) missed a three on its next offensive series and Hurst was fouled on the other end. She made her first with 1:51 left, but missed her second. Eighteen seconds later, Robertson made two free throws to make it a one-point game, 41-40.

Both teams turned the ball over on their next possessions; the second was followed by an Explorer foul sending Kyara Weekes to the line for a one-and-one and she missed the first.

Ashley Gale missed a short baseline jumper, but Robertson grabbed her third offensive board and went for a put-back and was fouled. So, for the second time this season, she went to the line with the game in her hands, and she calmly sank both to put La Salle up one.

Fordham (7-13, 0-5 A-10) pushed the ball up the court, and Becky Peters' shot from the baseline was long, but Hurst grabbed the rebound. She went back up with it, but her make was after the buzzer and the Rams dropped their 24th consecutive conference contest.

This was the second time this season Robertson shot free throws with the game on the line. Against Lafayette (12/16), she went to the line with 33 seconds left with the score tied at 57-all. She hit that pair, as well, and La Salle won by four.

Explorers Fall at Home to Rhode Island

Rhode Island 54, La Salle 48

Tom Gola Arena
January 27, 2009

Philadelphia, PA—La Salle turned the ball over 23 times and could not keep Rhode Island off the offensive glass - the Rams grabbed 18 o-boards - and the Explorers fell to the visitors, 54-48, Tuesday night.

In a game that featured seven lead changes and the score tied five times, neither team could shake the other until the Explorers rattled off seven straight to open the second half and take a 30-21 advantage.

Ashley Gale scored five of her team-high 15 in the run starting it with one of her three made three-point baskets in the contest and her layup with 16:06 left in the second half capped the run.

Rhode Island (9-11, 2-3 A-10) slowly chipped at its deficit and used a 10-o run over a three-minute stretch to take a three-point lead (36-33) on a Crystal Bellinger jumper with 10:11 left. She finished the night with 10 points and eight assists.

Jamie Walsh, who scored 10 points, answered back with her first three-point basket of the night, which tied the game for the fifth time, but just under two minutes later the Rams led again, 39-36.

La Salle (10-11, 1-5 A-10) then rattled off eight unanswered points to reclaim the lead, started with a pair of made free throws by Morgan Robertson. She finished the night with seven points and nine rebounds.

Tara Lapetina and Walsh hit back-to-back three pointers to push the Explorer lead to five at 44-39 with 5:55 left in regulation. La Salle hit nine threes in the game opposed to Rhode Island's one.

However, the Rams did not go away, and over the game's last five minutes, outscored La Salle 13-2 as Sierra Cooper, who tallied a double-double (20 points, 12 rebounds) scored six in the run.

Her basket with 2:11 left gave the Rams a 49-48 lead and Lindsay Harris, who scored four of her 14 in the span, put them up three with a layup with 1:28 left.

Not only did the Rams get those 18 offensive boards, but they also took 10 more free throws in the game (14-4) and made 11 to the Explorers three.

La Salle Handed Tough Loss by Visiting Colonials

George Washington 72, La Salle 70

Tom Gola Arena
January 31, 2009

Philadelphia, PA—La Salle - down six with 58 seconds left - was able to knot the game at 70-all, before George Washington took a two-point lead with 25 ticks remaining. The Explorers had three chances to tie or win the contest, but none of their three shots found the bottom of the net and the Colonials escaped Tom Gola Arena with a 72-70 victory Saturday.

George Washington (13-8, 5-1 A-10) trailed for most of the game, but from the 3:04 mark of the second half to 58 seconds left on the clock, the Colonials used a 9-3 run to take their largest lead of the day, 70-64. The run was sparked by five straight points by Antelia Parrish, who had game-highs in points (25) and rebounds (9).

Nadia Duncan, who off the bench had seven points, five boards, and two assists, scored on a three-point play to cut their deficit to a pair but Tara Booker answered with a three to make it 69-64.

Yolanda Lavender then converted one of two from the foul line to make it a six-point lead before Duncan was fouled and went to the line for two shots of her own.

She hit the first, missed the second, but got La Salle possession back with a tie-up. On the inbounds play, Jenna Gilbert was wide open on the right block and laid the ball in, cutting the deficit to three.

Lavender was fouled again, and this time missed the front-end of the one-and-one. Jamie Walsh hit a corner three - her fourth of the game - on the other end to tie the game with 27 seconds left.

It was Lavender, again, at the foul line with the game on the line with 25 seconds and this time she made both to put GW up 72-70, which set up La Salle's last possession of the game.

La Salle (10-12, 1-6 A-10) quickly went to Morgan Robertson, who missed, but Margaret Elderton was there for an offensive rebound and a timeout. With two ticks left, Elderton attempted a three which almost went down, but missed and went out of bounds - GW ball.

Booker stepped on the baseline as she received the inbounds' pass, giving La Salle one more chance. Gilbert took the 10-foot baseline jumper which rattled around the rim and out as the buzzer sounded.

La Salle Loses Another Close Conference Contest

Fordham 48, La Salle 45

Tom Gola Arena
February 7, 2009

Philadelphia, PA — La Salle - for the sixth time this conference season - had the ball in the final minute with the game on the line. In Saturday's contest against Fordham, the Explorers had the ball down three, but their shot at the end was no good and the Rams notched the 48-45 victory.

Morgan Robertson registered her 10th double-double of the season in the loss, with game-highs in points (15) and rebounds (16), which now ties Chrissie Donahue (1996-97) for the most double-doubles by an Explorer while La Salle has been a member of the A-10.

Margaret Elderton sparked La Salle to a 12-5 lead just 4:20 in. She scored on a driving lay-up to open the game, then dished to Jenna Gilbert for a three on the next possession. Elderton later converted two free throws to give La Salle its largest lead of the game at seven.

It took La Salle almost 20 minutes to score its next 12 points - an Ashley Gale three-point play with 15:46 left in the second half - which pulled the team to within one (25-24).

Fordham (8-15, 1-7 A-10) slowly chipped away at the Explorer lead and took a 23-19 advantage into the break. They held their largest lead of four, four times, the last with 12:29 left in the game (28-24).

That is when La Salle's offense started to click - with Robertson and Elderton scoring on six of its next eight trips down the court. The last, with 6:23 left, put La Salle up for the last time, 39-37.

The Rams responded with back-to-back three pointers, but La Salle answered with a Jamie Walsh three to make it 43-42 with 2:45 left.

Fordham's Randall Hurst scored on an offensive put back to put her team up three with 2:10 left. The teams traded missed shots before Gale hit a three to tie the score at 45-all with 1:03 on the clock.

Becky Peters would give the Rams a two-point lead 30 ticks later and was on the foul line with 14 seconds with a chance to seal the Fordham win. She made the first, missed the second setting up an Explorer chance to send the game into overtime.

La Salle (10-13, 1-7 A-10) missed and has now played 12 games this season decided in the game's final minute or overtime. The Explorers are 5-7, but just 1-5 in A-10 contests.

Explorers Fall in Big 5 Contest to Hawks

Saint Joseph's 59, La Salle 42

Daskalakis Athletic Center
February 11, 2009

Philadelphia, PA — La Salle had a chance - with a victory over Saint Joseph's on Wednesday night - to tie with Temple for the Big 5 Title. However, the Hawks got the victory, 59-42, at the Daskalakis Athletics Center.

To start the game off, Ashley Logue and Morgan

Robertson alternated baskets, as both scored four quick points. Margaret Elderton gave La Salle its only lead of the night, 6-4, with a jumper at the 17:12 mark.

Saint Joseph's (11-13, 3-6 A-10, 2-2 Big 5) responded with nine straight points with Jenna Loschiavo scoring four of her game-high tying 15 points to cap the stretch, the last two were a pair of free throws at the 14:15 mark to give the Hawks a 13-6 advantage.

For the next six minutes, the Explorers could not get under the seven-point deficit - the last time with a

Robertson lay-up at the 8:35 mark pulled La Salle to within 24-17.

However, a Hawk 11-2 run over the next four minutes started with a Loschiavo three - she hit three in the game - and ended with back-to-back baskets from Logue, who also scored 15 in the contest, and with 4:57 left until the break, Saint Joseph's led 35-19.

La Salle would hold the Hawks scoreless for almost six minutes, but could only manage four points before the break - both from Jamie Walsh, who scored a game-high 10 for the Explorers.

Elderton cut the deficit back to 10 (35-25) with a lay-up for the first basket of the second half, but an 11-2 Hawk run over the next six minutes would give Saint Joseph's its largest lead of the night of 19.

La Salle (10-14, 1-8 A-10, 2-2 Big 5) would respond with seven straight points - a Walsh three, and baskets from Nadia Duncan and Jenna Gilbert - which pulled the Explorers to within 12 (46-34).

Mary Kate McDade then hit a basket - a three - and the Explorers would get no closer than 13 the rest of the way.

Despite grabbing 14 offensive boards, equaling the Hawks' total, Saint Joseph's held an 8-6 advantage in second-chance points and, in the first half, had a 24-12 advantage in points-in-the-paint - finishing with 34 to 26.

Robertson Nets Career High in Overtime Loss

Charlotte 67, La Salle 62 (OT)

Tom Gola Arena
February 14, 2009

Philadelphia, PA—Morgan Robertson scored a game and career-high 26 points—including a lay-up with six seconds left to force overtime. However, Charlotte prevailed in the extra session, 67-62, to hand La Salle another heartbreaking Atlantic 10 Conference defeat.

In what has become a common theme for the Explorers this conference season, the team battled back from a second-half deficit—as much as 10 with 16:29 to go—but came up just short at contest's end.

Trailing 38-28, La Salle used an 8-3 run to get to within five (41-36) after Robertson scored on a lay-up. But five points was the hump that the Explorers seemed like they would not get over.

Charlotte (18-6, 9-1 A-10) went back up eight before Ashley Gale hit a three and it was seven (46-39) after Aysha Jones scored on a jumper.

La Salle rattled off the next four points—an Antonia Gale elbow jumper and a Robertson baseline shot—pulled the Explorers to within three with 8:16 left in the game.

The 49ers answered with four of their own, the second basket by Danielle Burgin, who had 20 points, nine boards in the contest.

However, the Explorers hung around and down six (54-48) with under four minutes to play, made their last run, which started with Robertson scoring on back-to-back trips down the floor.

Tara Lapetina went to the line with 1:28 left with a chance to tie. She made both knotting the game at 54-all and both teams came up empty on their next two possessions. Burgin put Charlotte up with a layup with 23 seconds left and Robertson tied it to force overtime.

Jamie Walsh gave La Salle a three-point lead (59-56) at the 2:54 mark of the extra session, but seven straight 49er points had them ahead 63-59 with 1:53 left.

Margaret Elderton hit a three to make it a one-point game before Burgin pushed their advantage back to three. La Salle fouled Erin Floyd with 10 seconds left—who had a chance to seal the game—but missed the front end of a one-and-one.

La Salle (10-15, 1-9 A-10) had a chance for the tie but this time the shot missed and free throws on the other end sealed the 49er win.

La Salle Loses at Top-20 Xavier

#17/16 Xavier 72, La Salle 42

Cintas Center
February 18, 2009

Cincinnati, OH—La Salle took on #17/16-ranked Xavier in Atlantic 10 action at the Cintas Center and were handed a 72-42 defeat, Wednesday. Margaret Elderton and Jamie Walsh both scored 11 points in the loss.

After allowing the first eight points of the game, the Explorers finally got on the scoreboard with a Morgan Robertson layup at the 15:37 mark of the first.

Then trailing 13-4, Walsh knocked down a three and Robertson followed with a foul shot to pull La Salle to within five with 13:42 left before the break.

Xavier (23-4, 11-0 A-10) then rattled off nine straight points to push its lead into double figures and increased its advantage to 21 (34-13) after Special Jennings hit a three with 4:57 left before the break.

The Explorers were able to hold the Musketeers off the scoreboard the rest of the half, but could only manage an Ashley Gale three and headed into the locker rooms trailing, 34-16.

Elderton knocked down a three to start the second half, but Xavier used a 7-2 run to build its lead back to 20 after Ta'Shia Phillips scored in the paint.

La Salle (10-16, 1-10 A-10) then connected on back-to-back three pointers by Elderton and Walsh and after a pair of Musketeer free throws, Elderton hit another one to pull the Explorers to within 13 (43-30) with 15:22 left in the contest.

However, Xavier scored eight unanswered points to push its lead back above 20 and the Explorers would get no closer than 18 the rest of the way.

The Musketeers held a 34-14 advantage in points in the paint and scored 13 second-chance points in the first half, and finished with just 16 to La Salle's three.

Despite the loss, La Salle set a team record for three-point baskets made in a single season, which now stands at 170, surpassing the 2005-06 squad that set the record with 166.

Explorers Fall to Flyers

Dayton 71, La Salle 49

UD Arena
February 21, 2009

Dayton, OH—La Salle dropped the second game of its Ohio trip on Saturday afternoon at the University of Dayton Arena, 71-49, to the host Flyers in Atlantic 10 action.

Morgan Robertson notched a double-double in the losing effort, her 11th of the season, which is tied for the most by an Explorer with Jenny McGowan (1992-93) in the last 27 years. Jamie Walsh led La Salle with 11 points.

The Explorers came out hot, hitting their first three shots to build a quick five-point advantage. Antonia Gale opened the game with a three followed by a Walsh three.

After Dayton scored its first points—a three—Robertson knocked down a jumper just 1:54 into the game and La Salle led 8-3.

The Flyers responded with 21 unanswered points and held La Salle scoreless for almost seven minutes to take a 24-8 lead. Kristin Daugherty scored eight in the run—which included a pair of threes—and Marie Rosche tallied seven.

Margaret Elderton ended the run with a 15-foot jumper and after Walsh hit another three to pull La Salle to within 12 (26-14), the Flyers rattled off seven straight points to push their lead to 19.

Dayton (16-12, 5-7 A-10) took an 18-point lead into the locker rooms (36-18) thanks in part to a 14-0 advantage in points in the paint. They also held a 14-2 edge in points off of turnovers despite the fact both squads had seven in the first half.

The Flyers scored five straight points after the break to push their lead to 23 and the Explorers would never get closer than 20 the rest of the way.

La Salle (10-17, 1-11 A-10) connected on six three-point baskets in the contest to push its total to a school record 176 makes, passing the old mark by 10 and still have two games remaining to pad it.

Elderton Nets 19 in Final Game at Tom Gola Arena

Duquesne 66, La Salle 51

Tom Gola Arena
February 25, 2009

Philadelphia, PA—Margaret Elderton—La Salle's lone senior on the squad—poured in a game-high 19 points and added a team-high seven rebounds in her final home game at Tom Gola Arena, Wednesday.

However, the visiting Duquesne Dukes erased a 10-point halftime deficit to register the 66-51 victory in Atlantic 10 Conference action.

Elderton scored 16 of her points in the first half as the Explorers raced out to an early 13-point lead. With her team trailing 7-5 six minutes into the contest, Elderton drained back-to-back threes to start a La Salle 15-0 run.

The Explorers held the Dukes scoreless for seven minutes in the span, which was continued with four points from Antonia Gale and a Tara Lapetina three. Elderton capped the run with a lay-up at the 8:33 mark and La Salle led 20-13.

Duquesne (18-10, 8-5 A-10) responded with its own run over the next three minutes to pull to within a basket. The 11 straight points included three three-point baskets, the final by Alex Gensler with 4:13 before the break had the Dukes down 20-18.

La Salle closed out the first with a 12-4 run with Elderton scoring six points and Jamie Walsh scoring the other six, including a three just before the halftime buzzer to put them up 32-22 at intermission.

The Dukes were a different team in the second half. Through the first 13 minutes out of the locker room, they hit 12-of-17 shots from the floor, 7-of-9 from behind the arc, and were a perfect 6-of-6 from the foul line as they used a 37-run to open a 20-point lead (59-39).

La Salle (10-18, 1-12 A-10) missed its first eight shots in the period, six from three, and turned the ball over five times before its first made shot of the second half. Walsh hit a three to end a 20-1 Duquesne run out of the break, and her fourth three of the night ended a 17-2 run.

Duquesne hit 14 threes in the game to set a school record and tied an A-10 team-high for the season. The Explorers attempted 29 three-point baskets in the game, which set a school record for attempts in a game. The previous high was 28, versus Fordham on Feb. 24, 2006.

Explorers End Season With Loss At Massachusetts

Massachusetts 82, La Salle 66

The Mullins Center
February 28, 2009

Amherst, MA—La Salle had four players in double figures - led by Morgan Robertson with 15 - but Massachusetts also had four players with 10+ points and the Minutewomen took the Atlantic 10 Conference contest, 82-66, Saturday afternoon at the Mullins Center.

Robertson started the scoring for the Explorers, which was followed by a Margaret Elderton three pointer, which put La Salle up 5-3 early.

However, Massachusetts responded with nine straight points - four from Diatiema Hill and five from Sakera Young, which put the Minutewomen ahead 12-5 five minutes into the game.

La Salle slowly chipped away at the deficit, using - at one point - a 7-0 run to get to within two (24-22). Robertson scored the first four and Jenna Gilbert knocked down a three with 9:30 left in the first.

Then down five (34-29), they scored seven-of-nine points, four from Antonia Gale, and when Gilbert scored on a lay-up with 1:10 left before intermission, the Explorers pulled even at 36-all.

UMass (12-17, 5-9 A-10) then scored the last five points before the break and the first two out of the locker rooms to build its lead back up and it was nine (51-42) with 15:08 left in the game.

La Salle (10-19, 1-13 A-10) made one last run as Gilbert scored again inside, Tara Lapetina knocked down a three, and following a UMass basket, Jamie Walsh also hit a three to cut her team's deficit to three (53-50) just two minutes later.

After Gilbert responded to another UMass basket, the Minutewomen used a quick five-point spurt to push its lead to eight and the Explorers would never get closer than six the rest of the way.

Robertson (15) was joined in double figures by Elderton and Walsh, each with 14, and Gilbert, who had 11 and a team-high six rebounds. Lapetina handed out six assists, as Gale had five points, three boards, and three steals.

It had been more than three years - Feb. 24, 2006 - that La Salle had at least four players reach double figures and did not get the win (at Fordham, 76-68 loss).

Philadelphia Big 5 Hall of Fame

Since 1973, the Big 5 has selected players, coaches, broadcasters, sportswriters and others who have made significant contributions to the Big 5 and its history to become members of the Philadelphia Big 5 Hall of Fame. Each year, inductees are honored at a luncheon on the Palestra floor, and then enshrined at halftime of a designated Big 5 game.

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

Brother Michael J. McGinniss

President, La Salle University

Brother Michael J. McGinniss, F.S.C., Ph.D., became La Salle University's 28th president on July 1, 1999, and is now in his third term as President.

Under Br. Michael's direction, the University developed a new strategic plan and significantly increased enrollment, giving, and alumni involvement in the life of the University. In addition, the University built and opened a new residence hall for 428 students and adjoining dining facility in 2005 and expanded the Bucks County Center in 2006. In cooperation with the Board of Trustees, Br. Michael launched Shoulder to Shoulder, a fundraising initiative with a $25 million goal for the construction of a new science and technology center and the strengthening of the endowment for student scholarships. Completed in 2007, this major gift initiative raised more than $28 million. At the same time, the University expanded its campus by approximately 30 acres with the purchase of the Germantown Hospital property and two adjoining lots.

In addition, in 2008 the University opened a Montgomery County Center and launched its latest strategic plan, The Will to Excel. In 2009, La Salle celebrated the openings of both The Shoppes at La Salle, the shopping center on campus, and the renovated and expanded Holroyd Hall, featuring the Hugh and Nancy Devlin Center for Science and Technology.

A native Philadelphian, Br. Michael joined the De La Salle Christian Brothers in 1965 and graduated maxima cum laude from La Salle in 1970 with a degree in English. He obtained his master's degree and Ph.D. in theology from the University of Notre Dame.

From 1970 to 1974, he was a member of the English and Religion departments at South Hills Catholic High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. While a graduate student at the University of Notre Dame, he taught undergraduate courses in the Theology Department and was assistant rector of Grace Hall.

His first teaching experience at La Salle was as a visiting instructor in the Graduate Religion Program in the summer of 1978. He was also an assistant professor at the Washington Theological Union from 1979 to 1984. From 1986 to 1990, he was a visiting instructor at Loyola University's Summer Institute of Pastoral Studies.

In 1984, Br. Michael joined the faculty at La Salle on a full-time basis, eventually reaching the rank of full professor in 1993. Recognized by the De La Salle Christian Brothers for his qualities as a leader, he attended La session internationale des études lasallienヌes (a program of study of Lasallian spirituality) in Rome in 1991. He became Chair of La Salle's Religion Department that year, and the following year he received the Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award. Also in 1992, he was appointed Vice President of the La Salle University Corporation. In 1995, he became a member of La Salle's Board of Trustees.

In 1994, he became President of Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tenn. Under his leadership, undergraduate enrollment and retention rates were increased; a Graduate Education Program was established; the Athletic Department joined the NCAA Division II Gulf South Conference; new residence halls were constructed; enhancements were made to science labs and facilities; the school's engineering departments were re-accredited; an upgrade of information technology systems throughout the campus was implemented; and the Center for Global Enterprise was founded. He also played a key role in the school's 125th anniversary celebration.

He has published articles in such journals as Listening: Journal of Religion and Culture and New Theology Review. He has written chapters in religious books and texts, including "The Catholic University as a Context for Pastoral Studies: Reflections on Three Programs" in Pastoral Studies in the University Setting (University of Ottawa Press). He edited six volumes of the Christian Brothers' Spirituality Seminar Series. Since 1983, his reviews of books have appeared in journals such as Horizons, Theological Studies, Journal of Ecumenical Studies, and Holistic Nursing Practice. For many years, he has lectured to a variety of academic and professional groups on issues related to spirituality, pastoral care, and theology.

His academic areas of expertise are pastoral theology, history and theology of ministry, methods and models of theological reflection, ecclesiology, and Lasallian spirituality.

Br. Michael serves on the Boards of the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Pennsylvania, the American University of Rome, Manhattan College, La Salle College High School, the Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition, and the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. Br. Michael is the North American Regional Director of the International Association of Lasallian Universities. In addition, he is a member of the Christian Brothers Regional Education Board.

His professional memberships include the Catholic Theological Society of America, the American Academy of Religion, the College Theology Society, the Lasallian Association of College and University Presidents, and the International Association of Lasallian Universities.

He guides the school's 22-sport Division I intercollegiate athletic program as well as a comprehensive recreational sports program.

Since coming to La Salle, Dr. Brennan has enhanced many areas within the Athletic Department. During his tenure, student athlete academic achievement has been outstanding and annual fund raising through the Explorer Club and Corporate Partners Program has increased significantly. La Salle has also received national recognition for excellence in its community service and outreach programs.

Dr. Brennan is a member of the Board of Directors for the Big Brothers/Big Sisters Association of Southeastern PA and a member of the Executive Committee for the Philadelphia Sports Congress. Dr. Brennan is the recent chair of the Atlantic 10 Conference Executive Committee and has served as Chair for the Atlantic 10 Conference Post-Graduate Scholarship, Finance and Television Committees, and as Advisor to the Conference Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC). Brennan is a member of the Executive Committee for the National Consortium for Academics and Sport (NCAS) and is a member of the NCAA Committee on Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct and the newly established NCAA Amateurism Cabinet.

Brennan was the Athletic Director at San Jose State University from 1990-1997, moving the school from the Big West Conference to the Western Athletic Conference. From 1986-1990, he was the Director of Athletics at Loyola College in Maryland, moving the school into the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. He worked at the University of New Mexico from 1980-1986, first as Assistant Athletics Director and then as Associate Athletics Director.

His athletic administration career began at Syracuse University, where he was Coordinator of Academic and Student Support Services for the Athletic Department. Dr. Brennan has also taught at both the graduate and undergraduate level and is currently an adjunct professor in the School of Business at La Salle.

A 1973 graduate of Le Moyne College in Syracuse, NY, Brennan went on to earn his Master's and Doctoral degrees in Higher Education Administration from Syracuse University. A native of Brooklyn, NY, Brennan and his wife Ellen – an instructor at Pennsylvania State University, Abington campus – are the parents of Maggie (21), Tim (19), and Kate (15).

John Lyons

Senior Associate Athletic Director

John Lyons is in his 28th year as a member of the Athletic Department. Lyons served as the head swimming coach for the first 17 years of his time at La Salle and as Associate Athletic Director since 1999. During his coaching tenure, the Explorers earned national recognition and distinction.

With Lyons at the helm,

the Explorers won 13 conference titles and amassed over 100 dual meet victories.

Lyons was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1999 and promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director in 2008. He is responsible for the internal operations of the Athletic Department including Budgets, Compliance Services, Personnel and Facilities. He also oversees the Sports Medicine Department and Strength and Conditioning programs. Lyons is an adjunct faculty member of the La Salle biology department, where he teaches one class per semester. He also sits on numerous University committees and was the liaison for the NCAA Certification and Peer Review two years ago.

Throughout his coaching career, he won outstanding coaching awards – including three Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year awards – and was an eight-time recipient of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Coach of the Year award. He was inducted into the La Salle University Hall of Athletes for coaching in 2002.

Lyons was the Chair of the NCAA Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Rules Committee for all three NCAA divisions and is the chair of the Men's and Women's Division I Championship Committee and the Atlantic 10 Swimming and Diving Committee. He has served as Chair of the Atlantic 10 Women's Soccer Committee.

Lyons holds a Master's degree in Education from Bucknell University. He resides in Maple Glen, Pa., and has three sons – Daniel, Jeffrey and Zachary.

Kale Beers

Associate Athletic Director

Kale Beers was promoted to Associate Athletic Director for Advancement (External Affairs) in July of 2009 after 13 years of service in the La Salle Athletic Department.

He spent the last eight years as the Director of Athletic Communications where he oversaw all aspects of sports information, public relations, game day management and was the primary webmaster for GoExplorers.com.

In his new position he will supervise the Athletic

Communications operation as well as the areas of Corporate Sales and Outreach, Project TeamWork (Community Service) and lead Fundraising efforts to include duties as Executive Director of The Explorer Club.

Beers began his professional affiliation with Explorer athletics in 1996 when he was contracted to create the La Salle Radio Network and assist with game day promotions. He gradually assumed more duties until he was named Assistant for Athletic Advancement where he handled corporate sales and marketing and maintained accounts with several corporate partners and supporting sponsors who remain affiliated with the department to this day.

Under his direction as Director of Athletic Communications, GoExplorers.com saw three site redesigns including the first in which the University outsourced the design and hosting of its athletics web site. Beers was the primary graphic designer and responsible for the enhancement of athletic publications among many other areas. His design influence can be seen in most of the athletic publications, selected facility signage, retired number and team banners and even the current design of the game court at Tom Gola Arena. Beers also was a key member on the committee that introduced the first professionally designed and current logo and branding system for La Salle Athletics.

Beers will remain the radio "Voice of the Explorers" as he has for the past 13 seasons making him the longest tenured play-by-play man in the Big 5. Only the great Dan Baker (Drexel) has called more city series games among current city broadcasters. He has called over 500 Explorer events including men's and women's basketball and football since 1996.

A 1995 maxima cum laude graduate of La Salle's Department of Communication, Beers is currently working in his 17th season in professional and collegiate sports. Beers, 38, was born in Emmaus, PA., and is a veteran of the U.S. Army, in which he served six years (two in active duty) as a Cavalry Scout. Strength and Conditioning

BRIAN BINGAMAN
Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

A solid Strength and Conditioning program is imperative in the competitive world of college athletics. A critical component to on-court success is the work that is put in outside the lines.

La Salle University's Strength and Conditioning Program is designed to maximize the student-athlete's performance. This is accomplished through the use of orthopedically safe, physiologically sound exercises and comprehensive total body training.

By systematically and progressively overloading the muscles trained and holding each athlete accountable for each repetition of each exercise of every workout, the program ensures consistent gains in strength and power. The focus is on teaching the athlete to produce a maximal effort repeatedly for a given period of time and proprioceptive skill, one's ability to control their body in space, not how much weight an athlete can lift for one repetition.

The program maximizes the time spent in and out of the weight room, preparing the athletes for competition by making the workouts specific and purposeful so that they are a means to an end and not an end in and of themselves.

Behind all great Athletic Programs is a great Athletic Training Staff. At La Salle University, the goal of the Athletic Trainers is to return the athletes to activity not only quickly, but also safely.

The Explorers' Athletic Department has three top-notch full-time Athletic Trainers as well as assistance from the NovaCare Rehabilitation Group. Bill Gerzabek enters his 22nd year as the Director of Sports Medicine at La Salle University. The two assistant athletic trainers at La Salle are Kerrie Eisenhauer, who enters her eighth year, and Dan Kontos, who enters his second year. Also integral to the care of the student-athletes are Adam Edwards, who is in his third year as the NovaCare Athletic Trainer, and Carolyn Kirkup, a part-time trainer.

The Athletic Trainers are on staff to cover all of the Explorers' home games and practices. They also travel with men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's soccer, women's soccer, lacrosse and field hockey.

La Salle's Athletic Trainers work with team physicians, Student Health and the counseling center to help oversee the well-being of all student-athletes.

The University has established a partnership with the Albert Einstein Health Care Network and provides physicians through the Albert Einstein Sports Medicine program located less than one block from the University. Their physicians are available to La Salle student-athletes on the University campus.

The La Salle University Athletic Department established a partnership with NovaCare Physical Rehabilitation. NovaCare has become the "official provider" of rehabilitation for student-athletes at La Salle. All rehabilitation is performed in-house by La Salle University staff and NovaCare Physical Therapists.

Tom Gola Arena

Home of the Explorers

Over 50 years ago, in Tom Gola's senior season of 1954-55, the La Salle University men's basketball team played the majority of its home games in Wister Hall, where the campus bookstore currently is located. Since that season, the Explorers have called many sites off-campus home, however all of that changed on February 21, 1998 with a victory over Virginia Tech.

It took $6.3 million and 280 calendar days from groundbreaking on May 17, 1997 to return the men's basketball team to 20th & Olney fulltime. In the last home game of the 97-98 season, the Explorers defeated the Hokies, 74-64, before a sellout crowd, in an arena that went from approximately 1,000 seats to the current capacity of 4,000 – a 400% increase.

Tom Gola Arena is the home of the Explorers and the centerpiece of the Hayman Center. On November 21, 1998, La Salle officially named the arena after the legendary alum of the school in a ceremony at halftime that included most of the great La Salle ballplayers over the years. That night, the La Salle

Men's and Women's Basketball teams played a twinbill — the women defeated Delaware State, 84-59, the men beat Howard, 86-63.

The women's team has been playing at Hayman Hall since its inception in 1972. However, during the renovation, the Explorers played at Bucky Harris Gym on the campus of Philadelphia Textile (Philadelphia University). On February 1, 1998, they returned "home" for the first game at the Hayman Center, a 67-55 loss to Virginia Tech, which was preceded by the annual alumnae game.

In the 11-plus seasons that the Women have played at Tom Gola Arena, the Explorers have played 148 games and have an 81-67 record, a winning percentage of 55%. They have had seven winning seasons, which includes a season-best mark of 10-3 in the 2003-04 season, a record matched by the 2006-07 squad, and three seasons in which they went 9-5 (2000-01, 2002-03, and 2004-05).

The Explorers have played many memorable games in the building, but none match the excitement on February 4, 2005, when the women ended a 24-year drought (24 straight losses) by defeating the George Washington Colonials, 65-53.

As far as points scored in Tom Gola Arena, no woman comes close to the 44 points put up by Rasual Butler on February 23, 2002 against Rhode Island, but Jill Marano did hold the women's mark with 30 points versus Richmond on January 23, 2003 for almost four years. On January 9, 2007, Fordham's Lisa Carrol set the mark at 33 points in an 80-65 loss to the Explorers. Just over six weeks later, Carlene Hightower came within a basket of tying Carrol's mark (scoring 31 points in a 71-62 upset win over Charlotte) but did set a La Salle record with the output on Feb. 22, 2007.

In the 2007-08 season, Margaret Elderton increased the La Salle record by one, with her 32-point performance February 6, 2008 versus Massachusetts. It took an exciting overtime game for Saint Louis' Theresa Lisch to set the arena women's record with a 37-point performance on Jan. 17, 2009 in a Billikens' victory.

COVERING THE EXPLORERS

The La Salle University Athletic Communications office thanks you for your interest in covering the women's basketball team. This media guide was prepared specifically to assist the media in covering the team. In order for the athletic communications staff to better service you in your efforts to cover the team, please follow these few simple guidelines. We look forward to working with you throughout the season.

Any questions or special requests for information, photos, or interviews should be directed to Marc Mullen, Assistant Director of Athletic Communications, at (215) 951-1633 or Anthony Bonagura, Athletic Communications Assistant, at (215) 991-2886.

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press credentials for 2009-10 La Salle University home women's basketball games should be made at least two days prior to each game in question. Please direct all credential inquiries to: Marc Mullen, La Salle University Athletic Communications Office, 1900 West Olney Avenue, Box 805, Philadelphia, PA 19141. Official requests may be faxed to (215) 951-1694, but must be on company letterhead or they can be emailed to mmullen@lasalle.edu. Please include your name, affiliation, address, phone, and email address on all requests.

All credentials should be picked up at the press will call table, which is located in the foyer on the first floor of the Hayman Center. Credentials can be mailed if time permits.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo credentials will be issued to accredited photographers, working television media or others on special assignments. They should be requested in the same manner as press credentials. Photographers will be allowed access to the floor-level action, with restriction to the two baselines. Shooting on the sidelines, including from behind or in front of either bench, and behind the scorer's table, is restricted to La Salle affiliated personnel only. Please keep your photo pass visible at all times while on the baselines.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with La Salle women's basketball players or coaches must be arranged through the media relations office, specifically through Marc Mullen. It is suggested that 48 hours notice be given for an interview request. The media relations office will arrange an interview time that is mutually convenient for the player and media representatives. Players are not to be called on their cell phones or in their campus residences, nor should they be contacted via email. Rather, players will return telephone calls to members of the media. Players will not be asked to miss classroom time or practice time for interviews. Feature-type interviews will not be granted on game days.

The La Salle locker room is closed to all members of the media for all games. Head Coach Tom Lochner and requested players will be available for interviews following a 10-minute cooling-off period, as well as any visiting players and coaches.

Any media wishing to interview players or coaches from either team should notify Marc Mullen or Anthony Bonagura just prior to or at the conclusion of the game. Coaches will be available and every effort will be made to have those players available postgame.

PRESS FACILITIES

Media Suite Policy – The La Salle media suite at Hayman Center was dedicated in honor of John Glaser ('62) in October 2002 and is located on the Mezzanine Level. Theatre-style seating with internet and phone line access is available for 29 people. Food and beverage will be made available to working media approximately two hours prior to tip-off. Also available at this time will be programs, rosters, statistics, media guides, and game notes. The media suite will be closed during each half and no access will be permitted without staff escort after this time. It will again open at halftime and at the end of the game.

Personal items left in the room will be done at the owner's risk. Halftime boxes will be available in the media suite, as well as postgame books.

Press Table – The press row for women's basketball games in Tom Gola Arena is located on the opposite side of the team benches. Press row is for working media only and absolutely no cheering is allowed. Members of the media, who have given prior notice, will be accommodated with a seat on press row.

RADIO/TV BROADCASTS

Broadcast positions for television and radio are located on press row at courtside and are available for visiting radio as well. Visiting teams should contact the media relations office a week prior to the game they will be broadcasting to ensure all needs can be met.

TELEPHONES

The La Salle athletic communications office provides a bank of telephones along press row and additional phones in the working press room. These can be used before, during and after the game for work purposes. There are a limited number of telephones along press row for use during games, but please ask an athletic communications staff member if there are any more available if you do not see one near your seat.
